HEALTH AND SAFETY AT WORK ETC. ACT 1974

SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT

The Board of Queens Cross Housing Association is responsible for the conduct of the business of the Queens Cross Housing Association.

The Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 imposes statutory duties on employers and employees. To enable these statutory duties to be carried out, it is the policy of Queens Cross Housing Association so far as is reasonably practicable, to ensure that responsibilities for safety and health are assigned, accepted and fulfilled at all levels of the Queens Cross Housing Association; that all practicable steps are taken to manage the health, safety and welfare of all employees; to conduct the business in such a way that the health and safety of visitors, to any premises under our control, is not put at risk.

1. It is the intention of the Queens Cross Housing Association, so far as is reasonably practicable, to ensure that:-
 - a) The working environment of all employees is safe and without risks to health and that adequate provision are made with regard to the facilities and arrangements for their welfare at work.
 - b) The provision and maintenance of machines, equipment and systems of work which are safe and without risks to health to employees, contractors and any other person who may be affected with regard to any premises or operations under our control.
 - c) Arrangements for use, handling, storage and transport of articles and substances for use at work are safe and without risks to health.
 - d) Adequate information is available with respect to machines and substances used at work detailing the conditions and precautions necessary to ensure that when properly used they will be safe and without risk to health.
 - e) Employees are provided with such instruction, training and supervision as is necessary to secure their health and safety.
 - f) The Health and Safety Policy will be reviewed and updated at least annually. Communication of any such changes will be made to all employees.
